

Winder

Job description

Winder shall be responsible for re-winding of the electrical motors as per approved engineering process. Winder shall follow highest standard and best practices. Winder shall support other maintenance members in its day to day operation.

Duties and Responsibilities

1. Report to Head of Maintenance Unit.
2. Visual checking, pre-testing and maintaining records of the motors.
3. Dismantling, identifying and recording the information regarding the motor.
4. Receiving and verification of consumables for electric motor re-winding.
5. Perform motor re-winding and stator balancing as per approved engineering process.

Key Skills and Competencies

1. Should have experience on motor re-winding process and procedures.
2. Should have basic concept of motor construction and their functions.